SECRETARY AT FAIR ASS'N
SAYS ADVERTISING PAYS

Experience Has Taught Him it Is the Gilded Pathway to Success in All Business Ventures

From far-off Colorado, Washington and South Carolina, Secretary Van Auker of the Interstate Fair association is receiving inquiries regarding the fair, and the association's extensive advertising policy inaugurated this year, is beginning to bring results.
Imported advertising matter of an elaborate nature, consisting of varicolored souvenir postal cards, series of imitation German delft plates, a perfect imitation of a cow's head, and other novel designs calculated to attract attention wherever seen, are being distributed over all the northwestern states. Advertising Manager Lemuel Drake left this morning on another long trip into Minnesota and South Dakota.
As a result of one line of advertising Mr. Van Auker this morning received a letter from a representative of the state of Colorado asking for space in which to show the official Colorado state exhibit, consisting of mineral products and other things of special interest in that state. Other inquiries regarding space have been received from Carolina and Washington and some other states not quite so far away. Mr. Van Auker realizes that advertising pays and hence is conducting the most expensive campaign in the history of the association.
One of his advertising schemes which has just been completed was the distribution of a premium list and official list of horse entries to every farmer living on a rural route in La Crosse and Houston counties. This task alone took 3,000 issues.

SAENGER-FEST IS COMING

Normanna to Save Old Empire Rink From Demolition

Norwegian singing societies of the northwest will hold their biennial saengerfest in the Empire roller rink building on South Tenth street next summer, if plans of the Normanna Saengerkor go through. This has been definitely decided by the local committee on arrangements during the past few days and already negotiations to secure control of the building for the purpose of remodeling it, are under way.
The committee, after carefully looking over available buildings and considering requirements and expenses, has come to the conclusion that the rink is by all odds the best building to be had in the city for the big event. Careful examination of the structure has been made and members of the committee were surprised to find that the exterior appearance of the structure belies the interior. The floor and roof are in good condition and committee finds that all the improvements needed for the purpose sought will be the erection of a large stage capable of seating five or six hundred singers and some other repairs of a minor nature. There is ample space in the building for the seating of between two and three thousand spectators, the usual number that gather to hear the saengerfest concerts, and with a comparatively small expenditure, the committee finds, the structure can be strengthened sufficiently to hold with perfect safety all the persons that can be crowded into it.
The Saengerfest committee has been promised assistance by the council in providing a place for holding the affair, and a permit to use the big rink will no doubt be granted unless the council in the meantime figures out some method in which the saengerfest can be better provided for at no greater cost to the association.

Dr. Koch a
Free Man

MANKATO, Minn., Aug. 2.—Dr. George Koch was yesterday acquitted of the charge of murdering Dr. Louis A. Gebhardt at New Ulm on Nov. 1. The jury was out fifteen minutes. Today's verdict brought to a close the third trial of the defendant, the first being at New Ulm and the second here. Both of these trials resulted in hung juries.
Owing to the sensational features of the case, there was great difficulty in securing the jury for the third trial.

SYRIAN CHILD PROBABLY FATALLY BURNED TODAY

Marara Ferris, Aged 3 Years, Found
Enveloped by Flames While Playing the Parlor at Her Home.

Mazara Ferris, the three-year-old daughter of an Assyrian family, residing at 619 Mill street, was frightfully burned this morning about 11:30 and from indications will not recover, as the result of playing with matches.
The little one and another child had been playing about the front room of the house all the morning. The parents, who were in the back part of the house, were startled by heart rending screams coming from the front of the house, and rushed into the room where the children were at play to find their baby's body enveloped in flames, nearly every portion of her clothing being afire. The child was seized and enveloped in a blanket and rolled on the floor, while pails of water were thrown on its body.
The flames were soon extinguished, but the child's body was found to be terribly burned. Dr. Kinnear, who was called to dress the injuries, found the baby had been burned about the arms, legs, and abdomen, and its face and neck were also badly scorched. He holds out small hopes of recovery.
The parents are mystified over the manner in which the child's clothing caught fire. There was no fire in the room and the blaze can only be accounted for by the supposition that the children in some manner got hold of matches and carelessly set fire to the Ferris child's dress. The thin cotton dress she wore burned quickly and before she probably realized what had occurred the flames were all about her.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2.—Six deaths, all Italians, were reported to 12:10 this afternoon.
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2.—The yellow fever situation is not so favorable today. The extreme heat and last night's rains increased the danger of spread and jeopardized the patients. The rain washed the oil from the gutters, which squads are at work today to replenish.
It is expected a number of new cases will be reported today. A case was reported yesterday at Montgomery, Ala., and was that of William Minihett, a planter, stricken at the Montgomery hotel. It is directly traceable to Kentwood, La.

Joseph H. Frank, who was mixed up in the assault during which Walter Brumfield stabbed and nearly killed William Slater, will probably get nothing more than a county jail sentence for his part in the fracas.
Frank, who was first arraigned jointly with Brumfield on the charge of assault with intent to commit murder, was arraigned before Acting County Judge Hunt this afternoon. One witness, H. Delaney, who witnessed the fight, testified and the case was then adjourned until next Wednesday.

WAS MONEY USED IN ESCAPE OF THE ROBBER?

This is a Question Which is Untangible but Refuses to Down--Girl May Have Been Instrument

Investigation by the authorities at the county jail of the manner in which Earl Trainor made his escape from the prison night before last leads officials to advance the theory that money figured in the scheme, although in what manner coins of the realm was used to assist in the post-office robber's escape has not up to this time developed.

Undersheriff W. J. Scott said this morning that in all his years of experience as sheriff and undersheriff he had never run up against a case so baffling. He has had experience with jail breakers several times, but always the prisoner has left some of the weapons with which he effected his escape or some clue by which the officers could determine how it was done. Trainor left nothing.

Every detail of the visit to the jail by the woman who claimed to be Trainor's wife has been gone over by the authorities, but at no time during her stay can they figure out where she had an opportunity of passing a saw or file to the prisoner. The officials claim that fruit, which was sent to Trainor by this woman, was examined before being sent up to his cell.

Another story, which has been going the rounds today in police circles and which will not down, is that a girl confined in the jail and who was a trusty has been employed in the kitchen, may have had her sympathies worked upon to the extent that she sent up to Trainor fruit at times when the prison authorities were not about to examine and see that there was nothing concealed inside the bananas or oranges.

At the sheriff's office the authorities are rather reticent regarding this story, and indications are it is being looked into.

The police believe Trainor is laying low in some place in this vicinity which had been fixed up and to which he was taken by some accomplice who was perhaps waiting with a rig just outside the jail when Trainor was making his escape. On account of being a marked man it is not believed he would attempt to travel very far until he thought the chase had been partially forgotten.

SMITH'S VIEW OF THE LA-CRESCENT SCHOOL HOUSE ROW

La Crescent, Minn., July 31. Editor Tribune:

The injunction proceedings begun against the school board of La Crescent to restrain them from going on with the new school house voted on last spring, came up for hearing before Judge Kingsley at Austin last Saturday with the result that the opponents of school houses find themselves in the position of the fellow who tried to lift himself over the fence by his bootstraps.

The plaintiffs, who had been bitter against the new school building from the start, but without grounds for direct attack, alleged that the board had no authority to convert the old building into the new one, and hence were individually liable to the people for alleged damages. The court very quickly set them right on this question by ruling that the board was acting for the district, so that Farmer Brown aided and abetted by his company of contortionists, will pay the costs of action as plaintiffs out of one pocket, and as taxpayers will dig up the expense incurred by the defense out of the other.

The question as to whether the board had the implied right, in the absence of a new site, to tear down the old building to make room for the new one, using the material in the latter, was taken under advisement by the court. Pending the settlement of this question work on the new building is at a standstill, the district is accumulating liability to the contractor for damages in delay, and the people are trying to figure out whether the expenditure of three dollars to save one was a stroke of keen foresight or the result of an intellect controlled by spite.

ALDERMAN EMERY LEFT TO WATCH CITY'S FINANCES

Aldermen Bartl and Bacheller Out of the City and Mayor is at a Loss to Know Just What to Do.

On account of the extended absence from the city of Aldermen Bartl and Bacheller the common council is practically without a finance committee, and the aldermen are all at sea as to the state of the city's finances. Unless Alderman Bacheller returns to the city before the next council meeting it may be necessary for Mayor Torrance to fill up the membership of the committee by appointing other aldermen, or at least to appoint a new chairman for the committee to succeed Alderman Bartl, who may be absent from the city for a year or more.

With Aldermen Bartl and Bacheller gone Alderman Emery is the only member of the finance committee, and being a new member the responsibility of keeping a watchful eye on the treasury is rather more than he cares to undertake alone. A resolution passed at the last meeting of the council requiring the comptroller to furnish monthly reports to all aldermen as to the condition of the city's finances, may help matters pending some more satisfactory arrangement for this important committee.

WARM WELCOME FOR BISHOP SCHINNER

SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 2.—Bishop Schinner, of the new Superior diocese arrived from Ashland at 8 o'clock last evening with a retinue of 100 priests representing nearly every parish in the diocese, and an escort of 200 laymen from northwestern Wisconsin who went to Ashland to meet him.

A large number of laymen were from Superior, the party leaving here this morning on a special train.

The special was met at the Superior union station by Superior Catholics en masse. A parade was formed in which the several Catholic societies of Superior, the Catholic Knights of Wisconsin, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Foresters and Polish orders participated. Representatives of these orders in Duluth, Ashland, and many towns in the diocese were also in line together with the mayor and common council of the city and clergymen in carriages.

Attorney W. F. Wolfe of this city is making an effort to secure a new trial for Charles Hammon and John Kolb, the two La Crosse boys convicted of complicity in the Columbia Heights' murder at Minneapolis. # Lid Is Off at So. Haven

South Haven, Mich., Aug. 2.—"The lid" has blown off in a hurry, and thousands of visitors from Chicago and other places came to help the "liberal" citizens celebrate. Prominent business men agreed to keep their establishments open in defiance of Sheriff Britton and his deputies, and in consequence drug stores, cigar stores, bazars and restaurants did the biggest day's business in their history. Slot machines grew pithoric and side entrances were very popular.

The crowds which came on the boats entered into the spirit of the celebration and made it a "continental Sunday" with a vengeance. There were songs, impromptu parades in which young women joined. The jolly crowds sought everywhere for the Sunday closing leaders, Sheriff Britton and others, but they kept out of sight and the officers in disgust gave up all attempt to curtail the enthusiasm of the crowds.

WINONA OFFICERS LOST THE $200 REWARD

BY ESCAPE OF OUT-LAW TRAINER, HERE

Sheriff Martin Lins and Chief of Police Leopold Schoenig this morning saw a reward of $200 slip away from before their eyes, says the Winona Republican, as a result of the carelessness of jail officials at La Crosse, which permitted Homer E. Trainor to cut his way out of the jail there last night and make his escape. Trainor was the ringleader of the trio of postoffice burglars and generally bad men who were arrested in Winona in the first part of July after having burglarized the postoffice at Stoddard, Wis. It was upon his person and in his room at the hotel that the bottle of nitro-glycerine, sticks of sealing wax and other material connected with a safe blower's outfit were found. His picture was found in the rogue's gallery and it was learned he had done time in Indiana for safe blowing operations there. Altogether he was such a hard and well known character that the Wilson officials received congratulatory telegrams from Chicago and St. Paul officials upon the making of the arrest. He and his two companions—Andrew Cunningham and J. C. Crane—were guarded safely here and turned over to the Wisconsin officials.

This distribution will amount to approximately $1 per teacher engaged in the state under the supervision of the county superintendents. The distribution is made to the county school authorities in proportion to the number of such teachers engaged in the county.

SOME OF IMPROVE- MENTS CUT OUT BY COUNCIL

The city will lay 27 blocks of water mains and eight blocks of sewer connections this fall, according to the decision of the council committees on sewer and water last night. Thirty-five blocks of water extension originally were planned by the committees but a shortage in city finances made the cutting out of eight blocks imperative. The work as planned will cost about $10,000.

The streets on which the water mains will be extended are as follows:

Sixth,
Jackson,
Ninth,
Market,
Charles,
Kane,
Berlin,

The temperature on the average was springlike, the mean figure for the month being 71. The highest temperature was 95 on the 10th and the lowest 55 on the 10th. The greatest daily range of temperature was 25 degrees on the 15th. The maximum velocity of the wind occurred on the 22nd, when it attained a speed of 26 miles an hour.

OBITUARY.

Died, Mrs. Sarah Boyle, Friday, July 29, 1905.

Sarah Tobin was born in Nicklow, Ireland, July 4th, 1830. She came to Canada and was married to Joseph Boyle at Ottawa city, in 1850. She came to the United States in 1868, settling at Onalaska where she has since resided in the same house until she came to La Crosse to live with her daughter, Sarah, Mrs. A. J. Daley of 1528 Avon street.

Deceased is survived by eight sons and two daughters. Patrick, William,

Edward of La Crosse, Joseph and Charles of Minneapolis, James and Duncan of Superior, George of Maza, North Dakota, Mrs. G. R. Francis of Merrillan, Wis., and Mrs. A. J. Daley of La Crosse. Her husband, one son, John, two daughters, Mrs. Fraynd and Mrs. Haas, preceded her to the great beyond.

Mrs. Boyle had always enjoyed good health until about two years ago when symptoms of kidney trouble came upon her, but her sudden death was a shock to the whole community. She was apparently well and walked to her son's for the afternoon last Thursday. She reached home and died early Saturday morning before her children from out of town could reach her bedside. The funeral was held Monday morning at nine o'clock from St. James' Catholic church of which church she was a devout member, Rev. Father Capellan officiating.

She was laid at rest in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery in South La Crosse. A noble life well ended. Always quiet and unassuming, she counted her every acquaintance her friend. A good Christian, a devoted mother, a kind neighbor, ever ready to extend a helping hand, she will be greatly missed, and her family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

THE LIGHT OF THE PRESS.

"It may not be good theology, it may not be good ethics, but it is certainly very good common sense and a very good moral element that the fear, the dread of exposure in the public press keeps many a man sticking close to the path of rectitude who otherwise would stray off into the byways." The words are those of Cardinal Gibbons.

And they are both sensible and true. Every little while some reformer with superficial views cries out against the publication of crime in the newspapers. He knows not what he does.

And every little while we are told that the model newspaper of the future will publish all good things and no bad things. And one gentleman tried making that sort of a newspaper and was successful—for a week.

Some day, we are told, the newspapers will cease to print the news of murders, and suicides, divorces, etc.

Never! That is to say, not as long as crime exists. And it would be an unfortunate day for society should the press set out to systematically suppress the news about crime.

The cardinal points out why.

One of the great fears of criminals and evildoers is publicity. "Men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil." They tremble lest the light be turned on. The first thing the burglar seeks to do is to put out the light.

What good would it do, pray, to "take off the lid" of crime unless the limelight of the press shone upon it?

Of course there is such a thing as overemphasizing and featuring crime as the yellow sheets do. But that practice contains its own cure. Readers will stand about so much of that and no more.

And, as the cardinal says, fear is not the highest motive, but it has its uses. It keeps many a man straight who else would go crooked.—St. Paul News.

Why this maddening silence on the John Downs matter?

It is but natural that James Hazen Hyde should settle down and get married, now.

Billy Wolfe will probably watch those rocks more closely when he visits the cave again.

The means adopted by the La Crosse & Southeastern for acquainting the La Crosse merchants and manufacturers with shippers along their line, is novel and commendable.

Evidently the only solution to the problem of graft in the federal government is to elect a good democrat who will do some housecleaning. A party is bound to become corrupt if too long in power.

SERGT. ROEMER, COMPANY B AMONG TWELVE HIGH AT THE RIFLE CAMP.

CAMP DOUGLAS, Wis., Aug. 2.—A cloudy sky and practically no wind made conditions excellent for rifle work yesterday at the state rifle camp, and the men have been industriously practicing at longer ranges—800 and 1,000 yards. It is at these long ranges that the eastern teams are believed to have an advantage over Wisconsin marksmen, as the opportunities for practice are better there than in the west. The judgment of those familiar with national guard and army target practice in the east and west is practically unanimous that if the Wisconsin men can hold their competitors nearly even on the longer ranges, they can win a high place in the tournament on their superiority in rapid fire and skirmish work, and their equality at the shorter ranges on slow fire. At retreat last evening Col. Graham, commander of the camp, delivered a short address to the assembled men of the camp, calling their attention to the necessity of their taking the best of care of themselves physically, avoiding drink and excesses of all kinds, and warned them that nothing of the kind would be permitted, on penalty of expelling the offenders from the camp. The address was received in the spirit in which it was given, and the men all realize that they are here for serious work and not for amusement. The work yesterday was all of a

JUST LIFE.

A man is not always known by his deeds, but sometimes by the reputation his enemies give him.

Success is failure—according to the new code graft is establishing.

La Crosse is preparing to extend a warm welcome to the state P. M.'s. No, p. m. bears no dark significance in this instance.

Man is seldom willing to admit that he is not about the biggest thing on earth, but, nevertheless, scientists at New Orleans have discovered the mosquito much bigger, and more important.

DEPARTURE OF THE SCRIBE.

By the following sad lines the Oak Valley correspondent for the Strum Globe sets her constituency in mourning over her approaching retirement from the business:

"As I am expecting to leave old Beef River Valley soon, I thought some of the scribes would like to hear from these parts before I go. I am still alive and full of business but will not be here to write again, but you may hear from me in the near future when I get settled in my new home. I thought I had better go slow as I might get in a scrap or skirmish with some of the scribes by making myself too useful."

FOR SHAME, OLE.

Lee News, Melrose Chronicle: Ole Dale, of North Beaver Creek, called at Tom Olson's, Sunday. Next time remember that the fair sex in our town don't go riding on Sunday, Ole.

POOR MRS. FOYE.

A few days ago a sympathetic chord was touched in everyone who read of poor Mrs. Foye and of her son, employed by Millionaire Gates, who caused her arrest when she begged him for support, at the door of the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

Details of the inhuman incident now give it a somewhat different aspect, though the foppy little James Edward is undoubtedly still subject to criticism of no very mild type. It develops that Mrs. Foye has a "wonderful and never failing" method, by which she probably expects to make money. She claims to have discovered some years ago the secret of pre-determination of sex along lines similar to those of Prof. Schenck of Vienna. Mrs. Foye says:

"Grover Cleveland thought so well of my method that he named his third daughter Marion after me, because I had correctly predicted the births of his previous two daughters and had assured him that the third child would be a daughter.

"Since Mr. Cleveland availed himself of my wonderful and never failing method he has been blessed with two sons."

It develops that she is still employed by the superintendent of parks. Her salary is $45 a month. At first she strongly insisted she was out of work, but at last she said:

"Well, I have a $500 piano half paid for. I wanted my son to pay for it."

BLIGHTED ROMANCE.

A country editor publishes the following forcible illustration for the benefit of the merchants of his town:

A young lady working in a stocking factory fearing her chances small for a life partner wrote the following and slipped it into the toe of a gentleman's sock. "A young lady good looking and of some means would like to correspond with the wearer of this stocking, if he's single, with a view to matrimony." A young man bought the sock and said: "There's my chance." He wrote to the young lady, offering himself as a suitable party and to his surprise got this reply. "I have been married eight years and have a family of five children." The merchant from whom he bought the sock had never advertised, consequently they had lain on his shelf for 8 years.

THE SPECTATOR.

A story illustrating the evolution of a "pipe story" under certain favorable conditions, is told by a well known man-about-town, who as a result of the prolonging of said favorable conditions now actually believes that there is something in the tale.

A party of men-about-town were out fishing in the vicinity of Brownsville. One of them lost his cap in the water and for a portion of the day went bareheaded. Along in the afternoon he discovered while walking along the shore an old faded derby which had evidently been lying there for some time. He shook the sand from within, rubbed off the leather band and wore the hat the balance of the day. On the way home he discovered on the inside of the crown the letter S. About the same instant it occurred to him that the elder Segelke and his grandson who were drowned four years ago, were last seen on the river in their skiff at a spot almost opposite where the hat was found. His imagination, coupled with a little more of something else, connected the two occurrences, his companions came to the same conclusion, and by the time the party reached the city the hat had become the property of the deceased Segelke for good and all. The Spectator walked six blocks in response to a telephone call, to get a good story, and came away with a good cigar and some new ideas on the fallacy of going fishing during high water.

Ex-Mayor W. W. Anderson, in discussing city affairs in general at the city hall the other day, pointed out to his hearers the almost certain introduction of a metropolitan industry in La Crosse as the result of the steady expansion of the city's paving policy. An automobile livery is the doctor's prophesy for the Gateway City, and he would not be surprised to hear any day that some enterprising man with sufficient capital was about to open a business of this kind here. Mr. Anderson thinks La Crosse now has enough finely paved streets and pleasure drives to make this industry a profitable one, and believes it would be a fine advertisement for the town in that visitors would be the principal patrons, and in a couple of hours' ride could get most pleasing impressions of the attractions of the city.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Aug. 2.—Sheriff Simpson served upon city officials a notice of temporary injunction restraining the city from interfering with the Winnebago Traction company in laying a double track on Ninth street, work having begun this morning. Immediately after, the city got out an injunction against the traction company to show why it should not be permanently restrained.

A. M. KATON LIVED TO AGE OF 115 YEARS.

GLIDDEN, Wis., Aug. 2.—A. M. Katon, who was born in Ireland 115 years ago, and believed to have been the oldest man in the northwest, died yesterday. Mr. Katon was born in 1790 in Thomastown, Tipperary, Ireland, and when he was 7 the family emigrated to Quebec. In 1822 he married Kathryn Mather of Quebec, and they had thirteen children, the oldest, if living, would be 82 years old. Five children are living as follows: Mrs. Mary McGinnis, M. A. Katon, Mrs. Bridget Donohue, Mrs. Kate Harbow, Mrs. Sarah Cannaday, all residents of northern Wisconsin.

The Katons moved to Buffalo in 1832 and came to Wisconsin fifty years ago. They lived at Menasha a short time and then moved to Bear Creek on a farm.

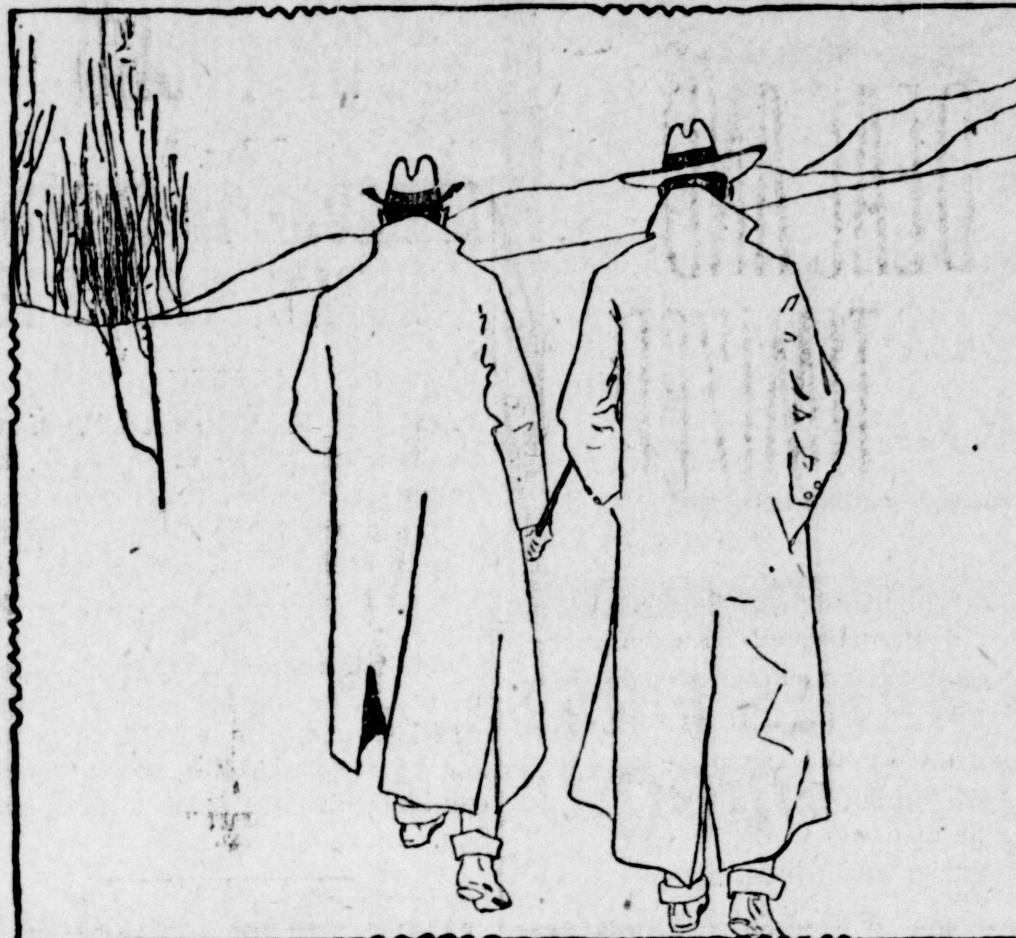

Mr. Katon was a ship carpenter by trade. He endeavored to enlist in the civil war, but was rejected on account of his age. His wife died seven years ago, aged 89.

"DEAF AND DUMB MAN" VICTIMIZED NORTH SIDE MEN

A well dressed young man played the "deaf and dumb" act on several well known residents of the north side yesterday, relieving them of some of their money and the price of an unknown number of drinks.

The man was in the places of H. V. Schneider and Abe Pittenger on Mill street and accosted the men at the bar. With a pencil and tab he wrote where he came from, etc.

The men wishing to help him out gave him some money and finally bought him a number of drinks which the dumb and deaf man seemed to want more than the money.

Soon after the man went into another saloon and by this time he had accumulated so much that he forgot his affliction and began to talk, finally winding up by saying that he was not broke and treated all present.

When the gentlemen with whom he had been earlier in the day heard of this their anger knew no bounds, but when they went to look for their man he was nowhere to be found.

BAPTIST MINISTER SCORES GOV. LA- FOLLETTE

CALLS JOHN D. VERITABLE ANGEL

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 2.—Dr. Robert Stuart McArthur, of New York, publicly denounced Governor LaFollette's violent attack on John D. Rockefeller before the Baptist Chautauqua in this city last week. Dr. McArthur not only scored LaFollette, but made a vigorous defense of Rockefeller. Dr. McArthur in his address said: "When John D. Rockefeller's critics are dead his name will be honored as a man of transcendent genius in creating gigantic enterprise and also as a humanitarian, philanthropist and churchman. The spirit of lawlessness is a reproach to the American people. Some men are literally lynched and others are metaphorically lynched."

"Governor LaFollette's remarks were intemperate. When he characterized Rockefeller as the greatest criminal of the age he incited lawlessness. I am a personal friend of Governor LaFollette and I greatly regret his unwise and inflammatory statements. Personally I regard him as a admirable man, but it is most unfortunate that he should take occasion to make an attack at a Baptist meeting upon a brother who is himself a leader in the Baptist denomination."

DYNAMITE INTENDED FOR FISH KILLED FISHERMAN

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Richard Johnson, 62 years old, was blown to pieces by dynamite while rowing across Niagara river at Tonawanda. Charles Duffy and Charles Sturges were with Johnson in the boat. Duffy's legs were torn by the explosion, but Sturges escaped uninjured. One side of the boat was shattered, but Sturges managed to keep it afloat until the party was rescued.

Johnson, it is said, was about to explode a stick of dynamite to kill fish. The dynamite fell out of his hands, and striking the side of the boat exploded.

THE SPLIT BETWEEN THE ZIONISTS

Basle, Aug. 2.—The split between the territorial Zionists and the Zionists over the rejection by the Zionist congress of the British offer of territory for colonization purposes in East Africa is complete. The territorial Zionists who left the congress have founded a separate organization of their own, called the National Jewish Territorialist league. Thirty former delegates to the Zionist congress and over 300 Zionists who were here as spectators at the congress have allied themselves with the new organization, and they are now holding meetings in a hall adjacent to that in which the original congress is meeting.

The programme of the new organization as it has been outlined is: To find territories where Jews who do not wish to remain in their native countries may settle; to organize the Jews throughout the world; to negotiate with various governments for the acquisition of territories for the use of the Jews; to establish such institutions as will assist the organization in the realization of its aims.

NEW YORK TO SUP- PORT TANNER

Washington, Aug. 2.—"Corporal" Tanner, former commissioner of pensions, and now register of wills in the District of Columbia, is confident that he will be elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, to succeed the late General Blackmar, when the veterans meet in annual encampment next month.

Tanner has the unanimous support of the New York representatives, numbering 800, and will carry a majority of the department of the Potomac's support. Other candidates in the field are Burrows, of New Jersey; Brown, of Ohio, and ex-Representative Burton, of Missouri. General Carnahan, of Indiana, was first in the field, but has been forced to retire on account of failing health.

CALUMET Baking Powder

Wilson Wants Cotton Men to Go to Oy- sier Bay.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Secretary Wilson says he is not disturbed by the demands for his resignation made by certain officials of the Southern Cotton association, and that he heartily approved of the expressed intention of President Jordan, of the association, to go to President Roosevelt with his demands. "I have reported my course to President Roosevelt," added Secretary Wilson, "and I have not taken President Jordan into my confidence. President Roosevelt knows what is going on in the department; Jordan does not. Yes, I hope Jordan will carry his demands to Oyster Bay."

President Jordan and Secretary Cheatham, of the Southern Cotton association, have issued a statement addressed to the members of the association calling attention to the recent disclosures in the cotton statistical work in the department of agriculture, declaring that efforts are being made to divert attention from the "deficiencies" of the system itself "to the thieving propensities of a few unworthy officials," and setting forth demands to be made on congress to reform conditions. One reform demanded is the establishment of a cotton bureau to have charge of all matters concerning cotton.

Will Equalize Teams

The consensus of opinion among the bowlers of the city is that in the organization of the La Crosse Bowling league an effort shall be made to equalize the strength of the teams, thus insuring close games and averages and interest in the tournament throughout the season. No officers were elected and no steps were taken during the outing for reorganization, this being left until later. The excursion was much enjoyed and a vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Hunt, Smith and Kohn for their energy in arranging the trip.

Fats Victors.
One of the most interesting features of the Bowlers' picnic and excursion was the two baseball games. The "Fats," composed of bowlers all weighing more than 200 pounds, defeated the "Leans." Dissatisfied, the "Leans" demanded a second game, and after refreshing themselves with a pair or more of lemonade, the "Fats" consented to a second game, defeating the "Leans" again.

The line-up of the teams follows: Fats—Wm. Tisch, p; Walter Winter, c; Will Cook, 1b; Charles Miller, 2b; F. Schaldach, 3b; Charles Smith, ss; John Rackelmann, rf; Theodore Thompson, cf; William Fries, lf; John Miller, umpire.

Leans—Alfred Miller, p; Sikaski, c; George Kohn, 1b; Gene Hunt, ss; E. Stender, 2b; W. A. Aldridge, 3b; E. P. Gleason, rf; C. Newell, cf; Will Hickisch, lf.

Among other things the bowlers decided to start the league tournament earlier this season than last.

GOSSIP OF LA CROSSE'S CHANCE FOR LEAGUE NEXT SEASON.

According to President Powers of the State League, Freeport is still ahead in the matter of attendance. League ball, he continued was something new to many of the towns in the circuit, but was glad to report that in all the towns there is a good deal of interest manifested, and next year will see them all in line again. Financially, of course, this year would not be a successful one.

The league, Mr. Powers said, is one of the very best in the country of the kind. The batting averages might be improved, but in fielding and other respects a fine record had been made.

Next Year.
There has been a good deal of talk in regard to the league or leagues of next year, says the Freeport Bulletin. The talk of a Wisconsin league exclusively is a La Crosse idea, and those who advocate it are loth to give Freeport credit for the manner in which the receipts have aided the treasury. There are two propositions for eight-town leagues under discussion, one of which may mean a Wisconsin organization, and there is also another one being considered. The first one is said to include the following towns:

Green Bay, Marinette, Wausau, Oshkosh, Menasha, Fond du Lac, Sheboygan and Manitowoc.

The second includes: Freeport, Rockford, Beloit, Janesville, La Crosse, Clinton, Ia., Dubuque and Winona. It will be seen that cities now in the Three-Eye circuit are included.

The third one considered includes:

"RUSTY" WILL BE IN GAME IN TWO WEEKS

GLAD NEWS PHONED HERE THIS MORNING

President Elliott of the La Crosse baseball team had a talk over the long distance telephone with Manager Hawley at Green Bay this morning and learned some good news for the fans here. It develops that the injury sustained by Catcher Dodge in sliding to a base will only put him out of the game about ten days. His ankle was fractured but in such a manner that the physician who reduced the fracture said that with absolute quiet Dodge would be able to get back in the game within two weeks.

Vogt did good work behind the bat yesterday and will be kept there until Dodge recovers. Klock is covering the second bag.

Onalaska Plays Here Sunday

The Athletes of this city and the Onalaska baseball team will play a match game on the league grounds here Sunday afternoon.

Claim Championship.

The Blair, Wis., "Home Patents," claim the championship of Western Wisconsin and Eastern Minnesota and have challenged the Athletes of this city who have claimed the championship to a match game. Efforts will be made to arrange a game soon.

Conference of Adventists

JANESVILLE, Wis., Aug. 2.—The annual state camp meeting of the Seventh Day Adventists will be held in Janesville Aug. 30, to Sept. 11. Tents accommodating 1,500 people will be pitched. H. F. Drowsett of Milwaukee is secretary and treasurer of the conference.

GREEN BAY, WANSAU, OSHKOSH, FOND DU LAC, FREEPORT, ROCKFORD, BELOIT AND JANESVILLE.

All the towns mentioned above have expressed a desire to be in a league and the plans are now under way and it will not be long before a definite announcement is made. It matters not whether some of the Wisconsin towns that are kickers will be lined up with Freeport. There is a good baseball sentiment in this city and those who are interested are satisfied that when the proper time arrives Freeport will be taken care of properly.

Race Is a Close One.

The clubs in the league have all maintained their relative positions during the past week. Oshkosh was expected to close in on La Crosse and Beloit, but was worsted in a series with the latter team, and the two leaders at present have a lead which begins to look safer as the season advances. Oshkosh has the advantage over La Crosse and Beloit by playing most of its remaining games at home, while the leaders are to be on the road most of the time, but both are good road teams and have more than held their own on the trip thus far. These three teams are now considered the strongest pennant possibilities, with the necessity that Oshkosh cut down the lead of the other two teams in the next week in order to be considered as having a good chance. Freeport is not feared as much at present as a few weeks ago, nor is Wausau. Green Bay is steadily improving its percentage, but is finding an uphill fight difficult and is still a long way from a chance to get out of last position.
